

EVENTS OF 1914

FILL BIG PAGE IN CITY'S HISTORY

Noteworthy Among Them the Defeat of Athletics, Slight Earthquake and Brumbaugh's Election.

The passing year of 1914 will live in the minds of Philadelphians as one of the most eventful in the history of the city, one of mingled sadness and good fortune.

The year was marked by the killing of two Philadelphians with the force sent to occupy Vera Cruz, a slight earthquake, the defeat of the supposedly unbeatable White Elephants and the election of Dr. Martin G. Brumbaugh as Governor of Pennsylvania.

The city had its usual share of disastrous fires. Six days after the start of 1914 a $100,000 blaze destroyed a building at 15th and Ludlow streets. On February 3 a fire near 2d and Arch streets caused a loss of $25,000. Sixteen homes were destroyed in a fire June 14 that originated in the Lubin motion picture plant. On December 22 fire destroyed the wall paper plant at 12th and 12th Street, with a loss of $100,000.

Among the more important events of the year was the decision of the Supreme Court declaring the Municipal Court unconstitutional, the action of the Mayor in vetoing the Municipal Court appropriation bill March 5 and of Council in twice passing it over the veto, the decision March 30 of the Supreme Court holding illegal the loan which was to have been voted on March 31, Transit Director Taylor's publication of the agreement between the city and the Philadelphia Rapid Transit Company calling for an expenditure of $3,000,000 and the appointment of Charles J. Rhoads as governor of the Federal Reserve Bank in Philadelphia.

Ground for the new shipyard at the Philadelphia Navy Yard was broken by Secretary of the Navy Daniels September 21.

Final argument was made in this city in the Federal suit against the United States Steel Corporation October 29.

The convention of the American Federation of Labor opened in this city November 9.

The Federal Reserve Bank opened November 16.

The weather during the year provided several interesting events, March opening with a blizzard that halted traffic throughout the city, and 7 1/2 inches of snow fell.

The hottest day of the year was July 23, with the thermometer 86 degrees above zero, and the coldest, to date, December 24, 19 degrees above zero.

Street lights were lit at 3 o'clock on the afternoon of December 11, when sudden darkness spread over the city.

The earthquake was slight, and was recorded February 10.

The Philadelphians killed at Vera Cruz were George Poinsett, a sailor of the battleship Florida, and Charles Allen Smith, sailor of the battleship New Hampshire, and on May 13 military and naval funeral services were held for them.

Nominations for the gubernatorial and United States senatorial fights were made May 19, and the election was held November 3.

The steamship Thelma, first of the foodships from this city, sailed November 13 for Europe.

On December 15 the railroads announced an increase in local passenger ticket rates. On the same day John Gribbel was elected president of the Union League.

REVENUE BERTHS FOR TWO

Collector Lederer Makes Appointments for Schuylkill County.

Two new appointments in the Internal Revenue Service of this district were made today by Collector Lederer.

John Siney, of St. Clair, Schuylkill County, was appointed to a division deputy collectorship to have jurisdiction over the newly created 18th division embracing Schuylkill County and three townships in the northern part of Berks County. The new position was made necessary through increased retail sales of liquor in that section. The salary is $1200 with expenses.

James G. Dewees was appointed stamp deputy collector at Pottsville to succeed City Collector Theodore Dewees.

CITY EXHIBIT TO CONTINUE

The "Know Your City Better Exhibit" in City Hall courtyard will be continued for several weeks. This decision has been reached by the Comprehensive Plans Committee because of the interest that Philadelphians have shown in the exhibit.

School children particularly have derived considerable pleasure from the tiny models and collections of insects that may be seen. The average attendance per day for a week was 4500.

Charts show Philadelphia as it will be when the proposed transit and municipal improvements have been made.

PIPE BREAK CAUSES $10,000 DAMAGE

Damage estimated at $10,000 was done to the A. G. Spaulding store and the neighboring establishment of Samuel D. Freeman yesterday when a frozen water pipe on the third floor of the building at 1210 Chestnut street burst, flooding the lower floor and the cellar.
